LONDON, FEBRUARY 6, 1792.

SHAKSPEARE.

THE ADMIRERS OF THIS AUTHOR ARE INFORMED, THAT A NEW AND SPLENDID EDITION
OF HIS PLAYS AND POEMS,
IN FIFTEEN VOLUMES, ROYAL QUARTO,
With the CORRECTIONS and ILLUSTRATIONS of various Commentators,
AN HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF THE ENGLISH STAGE,
REVISED AND AUGMENTED,
A NEW LIFE OF SHAKSPEARE,
AND VARIOUS DISSERTATIONS AND NOTES,

BY EDMOND MALONE, Esq.

WILL BE PUT TO PRESS IN APRIL NEXT.

The Plays will be arranged in the Order in which they are supposed by Mr. MALONE to have been written. The Types and Paper will be of the best Quality that can be procured, and will be made on Purpose for this Work.

MESS. ROBINSON AND HEATH,

PROPRIETORS OF

THIS SPLENDID EDITION OF SHAKSPEARE,

Intend to embellish it with a Set of highly finished Prints, all of which will be engraved

BY MR. HEATH,

FROM PICTURES TO BE PAINTED ON PURPOSE FOR THIS WORK

BY MR. STOTHARD.

And as the Work will be extremely expensive to the Proprietors, that the Number of Copies to be printed may be ascertained, they mean to publish it on the following CONDITIONS.

I. The whole Work shall be comprised in Fifteen Volumes, Quarto, and printed with new Types cast by CASLON, upon a Royal Paper, made by WHATMAN.

II. Each Play, and each of the Author's principal Poems, will be embellished with Two appropriated Prints; and Portraits of Shakspeare and the Editor will be given at the Conclusion of the Work. The total Number of Engravings therefore will be EIGHTY-Two.

III. Two Volumes, in boards, at the Price of Two Guineas and a Half each, are intended to be published in March, 1793; Two Volumes more every Ten Months, till the last Delivery, when Three Volumes will be issued to complete the Work.

IV. Each Subscriber is to pay Two Guineas at the Time of subscribing, and the remaining Three Guineas on the Delivery of the first Two Volumes.

V. On the Delivery of Two Volumes, Two Guineas more shall be advanced towards the Payment of the next Two Volumes, till the Whole shall be completed; and on the Delivery of the last Three Volumes the Sum in Advance will be allowed.

VI. The Impressions will be most faithfully delivered in the Order they are subscribed for.

The Proprietors have only to add, that no Pains or Expence will be spared, that may contribute to render this work worthy of the great Poet whose Writings it is intended to comprise.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by G. G. J. and J. ROBINSON, Pater-Noster-Row; and JAMES HEATH, Newman-Street, London.

RECEIVED Feb 27. 1792 of J Bannister Esq^r

Two Guineas being Part of the Subscription for the first two Volumes of Mr. MALONE'S Edition of SHAKSPEARE'S WORKS, in Royal Quarto; and which we promise to deliver on Payment of three Guineas more according to the preceding Proposals.
